

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.SUBSCRIPTIONS TO FAMILY PENSION FUNDS.Circular No. 1549, dated 30th April 1883.

In order to obviate the delay which now frequently occurs in paying into Her Majesty's Treasury at Bangalore subscriptions to the Bengal Uncovenanted Service and the General Family Pension Funds, received in the Treasuries of the Mysore Government, the Comptroller has the honor to request that subscribers residing in Mysore will be good enough to pay their subscriptions in cash instead of by deduction from pay bills into the nearest District Treasury, whence they will be furnished with a Public Service Transfer Receipt on Bangalore payable to the Officer in charge of Her Majesty's Treasury, to whom the subscriber must forward it for credit to the Fund.

District Treasury Officers are requested to draw the attention of subscribers to this Circular and take care that the Public Service Transfer Receipts are promptly supplied to them for all moneys paid into the Treasuries, as the rules of the Funds require payment to be made before the close of the month for which subscription is due. When subscriptions are paid into a Taluk Treasury, the Amildar will at once grant a receipt to the subscriber who will send it to the District Treasury, whence the requisite transfer receipt will at once be furnished to him on the authority of that voucher.

Subscribers at Bangalore should pay their subscriptions direct into Her Majesty's (the Resident's) Treasury.

H. HUDSON,
Comptroller.
